

PATHWAYS to Success

ANNUAL CONFERENCE PRESENTED BY

Leading With Purpose

Friday, September 15, 2023 | 8:30 am - 4:00 pm | Par-A-Dice Hotel - East Peoria, IL

The Central Illinois Chapter of NAWBO and Women in Leadership of Central Illinois have combined to bring the widely recognized annual Pathways to Success Leadership Conference to Peoria and its surrounding communities. We share the common goal of educating and empowering women in business and in leadership positions. Our attendance for 2022 was 260+. Our 2023 Pathways to Success women's leadership conference features Dr. Jamel Wright, President of Eureka College. President Wright is a well-published scholar and author, respected trainer and consultant on current issues related to communication, leadership development, and diversity and inclusion.

CI NAWBO is a dynamic group of intelligent, compassionate women business owners, corporate partners, pearl sponsors (non-profits), student and supporting members who encourage each other in their endeavors. They promote personal development through educational programs, build powerful connections through local and national chapter membership, and provide mentoring and encouragement. They believe it is their responsibility to not only be successful in business but to give back to their communities.

Women in Leadership of Central Illinois promotes leadership among women by providing mentoring, networking and educational opportunities. Members include managers, entrepreneurs, and professionals with a sincere commitment to their careers, families, communities and especially their personal and professional growth. They are achievement oriented women, sharing their successes, developing their personal and professional accomplishments and recognizing and celebrating the women in our area.
